

January 18, 2021 CAG Retreat Results

Draft Agenda (all times approximate)

2021 Member Recruitment

- Due to high levels of member retention and new members added in the fall of 2020, no formal member recruitment effort will be conducted in 2021
- Potential new members from the Saginaw River and Bay area will be sought.

Calendar

- The CAG will hold three meetings in 2021 on May 17, July 14 and October 27.
- Meetings on Zoom until safety protocols allow for in-person meetings.

Priority Topics for Consideration at 2021 CAG Meetings

- Overall strategic approach to cleanup of the Saginaw River and Bay, rough expectations, long term goal, and timeframes
- Saginaw Riverfront Park plans
- Understanding Army Corps dredging activity in the Saginaw River and Bay and its management of contaminated sediments and potential coordination with future cleanup activities
- The impact of climate change on the cleanup, particularly in light of historic high water levels and flooding
- MSU- Superfund Research Program Center update
- Middle Ground Island schedule and activities
- Update on fish and game advisories
- Where and how to find monitoring information
- Update on post-flood impacts and monitoring including the long-term implications of dam failure and plans for rebuilding dams.

Leadership Team and CAG structure

- Leadership Team for 2021 will remain the same with Dave Sommers, Terry Miller, and Luis Mulford
- Shellie Thurston will shadow leadership for the year
- No changes to CAG process or charter were made.

Communication Committee

- The Communication Committee will reconvene and work with EPA to help simple products to increase community awareness and promote the success of the cleanup activities to date
- Members will include Dave Sommers, Pam Binder, Jim Hahnenberg, Linzi Jo Kaniszewski, and Laura Ogar.
